ICM INITIATES A PEACE & PRAYER MEETING IN MT. ELGON

Through the Executive Country Director, Rev. Stephen Mairori, ICM as a stakeholder in Mt. Elgon through its Kopsiro campus initiated a peace and prayer meeting that was very successful. It was the first time the political leadership came together, shook hands, listened to the Word of God, got prayed for and never took to the podium to speak! Some had never shook hands nor eaten together due to political differences, but this occasion marked a new chapter in the politics of the area.

The pastors and the congregation freely shed tears as they prayed to God to restore and heal the land of the Sabaoth, from the grip of the enemy. At the end of this meeting, there was a sigh of relief in everyone's heart that the Lord had heard our prayers and we have been expectant that surely, the LORD has answered our prayers. Since then, we have never heard of any killings in the mountain! Praise the Lord. Continue praying for Mt. Elgon, that peace will fully be achieved and that a lasting solution will be found so that people can go back to their lands.
